 You can check your cohort in AIMS

Login AIMS -> Student Record -> My Status-> My Student Status

Example:

Programme: Bachelor of Social Sciences (BSSU4)

Cohort: 2025

3. Allocation Criteria

Priority of the 2nd study year:

- Submit the online application by the deadline

ATTENTION
PLEASE

1. General Application Information

1. Priority will be given to the first two study years of Full-time Non-local students in government-funded Bachelor's Degree programme, with 2nd study year of hall residence being allocated in Kowloon Tong Compound.
2. All students are required to submit hall application by deadline, otherwise, NO bedplace will be reserved even they have higher priority in first two years of study.
3. Higher priority will ONLY be granted in first two years of study (i.e. Academic year 2025/26 and 2026/27), and the priority given CANNOT be transferred to subsequent years of study (i.e. 3rd year of study or thereafter).
4. For subsequent years of study (i.e. 3rd year of study or thereafter), it will depend on the achievement / contribution / performance made in previous residence life (if any) under respective returning scheme. Non-local students are expected to secure their own housing in the market and are advised to prepare funds to cover such accommodation.

Plan carefully before taking leave of absence /
outbound exchange etc.

1. General Application Information

UG Hall Lodging Fee 2026/27

Rate for Double Room (per person)
$20,800 / year

Rate for Single Room (per person)
$41,600 / year

Residential period: 24 August 2026, 9am – 24 May 2027, 12noon

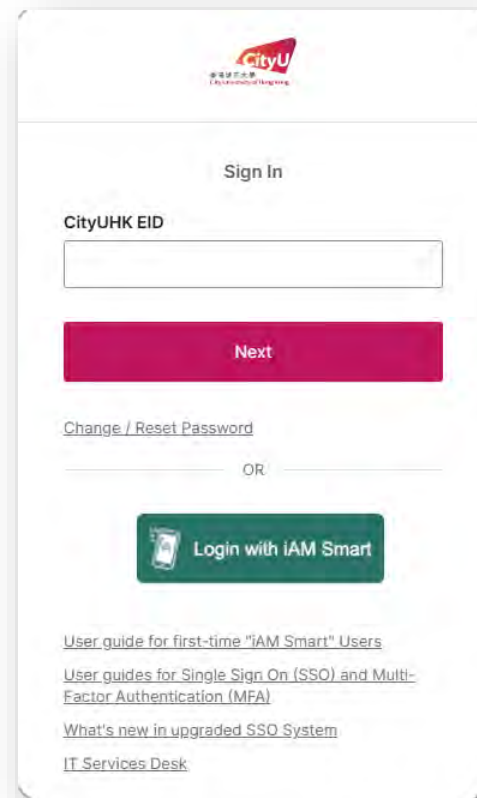

Important Note

1. Hall lodging fee of residential year 2026/27 is payable in two instalments to cover the whole residential period. 1st instalment and 2nd instalment will be charged in student account (tentative) in September and December respectively. The due date of 1st instalment is (tentative) in September and 2nd instalment is in January.
2. Full residential year hall place is offered to residents. No withdrawal from the Student Residence is expected. Once you accept the hall offer, you are liable to settle the remaining hall lodging fee, which will be charged into your student account in residential year 2026/27 even you move out earlier or do not complete the check-in procedure for any reason.
3. The hall lodging fee payment is non-deferrable on all conditions, hence successful applicants are expected to have sufficient fund for a timely payment before accepting the hall offer.

3. Appeal, Vetting, Room Assignment

3. Appeal, Vetting, Room Assignment

Appeal

- Applicants are required to make an appeal in writing (with supporting documents if any).
- The decisions of the Appeal Panel will be final.

Vetting

- Vetting will be conducted by SRO throughout the application processing and residential period.
- Hall Application is an HONEST system. Students are required to submit true, accurate and correct information in AIMs.

Note: DO keep all document proofs relating to your hall application.

For more details, please visit here.

3. Appeal, Vetting, Room Assignment

Room Assignment

- Rule of thumb: All applicants will be assigned to double-room double-occupancy if no preference is indicated.
- Applicants' preferences will be considered as far as possible.
- There is no guarantee that one will be assigned to a particular hall, unit, room type, or with a specific roommate. Final room assignment is subject to room availability and hall admission policies.
- SRO and the Residence Masters reserve the right to make alternative assignment decisions or re-assign students when necessary.
- No room assignment will be made if applicants fail to confirm their hall offer.

4. Outbound Exchange Arrangement

4. Outbound Exchange Arrangement

Basic Principle

If you wish to stay in Student Residence, DO submit hall application via AIMS to compete for a bedplace this round as hall application is administered once a year for current students.

If your enrollment status in AIMS is “On formal exchange programme”, you are NOT eligible for hall residence during this period. You should check out from the hall residence and no refund of remaining hall lodging fee.
